- 94. AMO Communications, Policy Update, Moving to Step Two of COVID-19 Reopening on Jun 30, Adding Mental Health Support to OPP Communication Centres – As of Jun 23, 2021, over 76% of the population in Ontario 18 and over has received a first dose of a COVID-19 vaccine, and over 29% have received a second dose. There has also been a decline in COVID-19 cases and patients in ICU which allows the Province to move to Step Two sooner than expected. Ontario is adding Mental Health Work to OPP Communication Centres. On Jun 22, the Province announced $8.4 million over three years in a new Ontario Provincial Police (OPP) Crisis Call Diversion Program. The new program embeds a professional mental health and addictions crisis worker into each OPP Provincial Communications Centre to provide resources, tools, referrals, and help navigate the mental health system for mental health related calls. At this point there is no available information on how this may impact municipal OPP billing and costs, now or in the future, and will be following up for additional details.
